

Building an MIH- Community Paramedic Program Workshop
Thursday, July 13, 2017
8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Columbus Hilton at Easton, Regent I Room
Presenter: Dan Swayze, Vice President and Chief Operating Officer
Center for Emergency Medicine of Western Pennsylvania

This presentation is designed as a small group workshop and is appropriate for EMS administrators and leaders.

During this workshop, participants will collaborate with other students to create a custom community paramedic program in response to a fictitious grant opportunity. During the program, Dr. Swayze will walk students through the critical steps to designing and implementing a successful community paramedic program. The process starts with conducting a needs assessment and ends with developing operational guidelines and a reasonable budget and pricing model that participants can use when they return home.

COST IS $100.00; includes lunch and snacks
